

DANIEL BEN-ZVI, ESQ.

Daniel Ben-Zvi (pronounced "BenzVee") is a respected mediator and arbitrator. One of 32 "Power Mediators" worldwide [Hollywood Reporter, 2007], he has mediated more than 1,500 disputes. Mr. Ben-Zvi, admitted to five Bars, draws on 20 years as a multi-state trial lawyer and more than 10 years as a mediator and arbitrator to resolve complex disputes. This "warrior-turned-peacemaker", as The Daily Journal describes him, brings a unique blend of persistence and creativity to ending bitterly fought lawsuits.

Mr. Ben-Zvi co-authored a book, "Inside the Minds—Alternative Dispute Resolution", writes articles and lectures on dispute resolution. Mr. Ben-Zvi's creativity even led him to be a writer on the television show "L.A. Law".

EDUCATION

- 1981 JD, Cardozo School of Law
- 1978 BA, Rutgers University (Honors, Economics)

DISPUTE RESOLUTION EXPERIENCE

- Mr. Ben-Zvi has mediated and arbitrated over 1,500 cases on the panels of ADR Services, Alternative Resolution Centers (ARC), Institute of Conflict Management, World Intellectual Property Organization and DB Mediation Services.

WRITINGS

- Co-Author, "Inside the Minds - Alternative Dispute Resolution" (Aspatore Press; Boston 2004), Co-authors include J.Brian Casey, Baker & McKenzie and Judith Korchin, Holland & Knight.
- Author, articles on mediation and litigation topics, including an overview of mediation "The Mediation Revolution" (CLA, CA; 2004).
- Profiled several times as Featured Neutral in the Daily Journal; 2001, 2005 and 2008.

SPEAKING

- Lecturer at Southern California Mediation Association's annual conferences and seminars at the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine University.
- Lecturer on mediation topics at Bar Associations of Los Angeles, Ventura and San Francisco and at Law Schools of UCLA, Loyola, Southwestern.
- Lecturer on "Mediation in the Real Estate Industry".
- Keynote speaker, California Lawyers for the Arts' annual conference [2004] on Mediation in the Film and Television Industry and panelist in other years.

- Featured Mediator on television including “Mediation Behind Closed Doors”, “Saving the American Dream”, “Law Talk” and consultant Neutral on ABC news.
- Featured Mediator on radio including "The Dennis Prager Show" and “The CBS Business Hour”.

AWARDS AND ASSOCIATIONS

- Chairman, "Los Angeles' Annual Mediation Day", on behalf of the Mayor and the City Council of Los Angeles to promote mediation, since 2005. Annual speech given by Daniel Ben-Zvi on status of dispute resolution in televised City Hall session, together with leaders in the legal, political and mediation communities.
- Diplomat Member, California Academy of Distinguished Neutrals.
- Honoree, Southern California Mediation Association's (SCMA) annual Employment Mediation Conference, 2005.
- Admitted to the Bars of California, New York, Washington DC, New Jersey, and Connecticut.
- Participant, "Master's Forum", Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution.
- Participant, "Harvard Negotiation Initiative Institute", Harvard Law School.

JUDICIAL AND LEGAL EXPERIENCE

- Judge Pro Tempore, Los Angeles Superior Court, from 2002.
- Judge, Annual National Negotiation Competition, American Bar Association, Law Student Division.
- Litigator representing plaintiffs and defendants, law firms based in Connecticut (Ribicoff & Kotkin) and Washington, DC and California (Saul, Ewing).
- Extern, Bankruptcy Judge Burton Lifland, Federal Bankruptcy Court, Southern District New York, 1980-1981.

CASE EXPERIENCE

Daniel Ben-Zvi, Esq. has experience as a neutral in the following civil matters:

Commercial/Business	Insurance	Personal Injury / Torts
Construction	Intellectual Property	Probate
Contract Disputes	Lemon Law	Product Liability
Employment	Landlord/Tenant	Professional Fees
Entertainment	Libel & Slander	Real Property
Franchise	Medical Malpractice	Technology
Health	Negligence	Trusts and Estates
Government	Partnerships	Workers Compensation