

HON. RON GREENBERG
Alameda County Superior Court (Ret.)

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Judge Greenberg is an excellent communicator who is skilled at developing creative solutions. With over 200 hours of mediation training including intensive courses taught by Stanford and Harvard faculty, he has developed listening and other skills that help him understand the many facets of every dispute. Frequently asked by his judicial colleagues to help resolve some of the most complex and intractable matters before them, Judge Greenberg ultimately resolved hundreds of matters involving numerous issues including personal injury, construction, medical and legal malpractice, contract and general business.

JUDICIAL EXPERIENCE

JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, Alameda County, California 1998 to 2000

Trial and settlement judge for jury and court trials, including a wide range of civil and criminal cases.

- Created and presided over a Drug Court, which was featured at the National Drug Court Conference, 1999, as the most innovative drug court in the United States

MUNICIPAL COURT JUDGE, Alameda County, California 1982 to 1998

- Served on statewide anti-nuclear judicial task force dealing with arraignments of hundreds of defendants and their subsequent trials

STATE OF CALIFORNIA, AGRICULTURAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
CHIEF JUDGE. 1976 to 1982

Involved in many complicated unfair labor practice and election cases. Participated in extensive settlement conferences and trials including a four-month trial that ended with a 200-page decision.

PREVIOUS LEGAL EXPERIENCE

PROSECUTOR, General Counsel's Office, 1975 to 1976
Agricultural Labor Relations Board, Sacramento, CA

DEPUTY PUBLIC DEFENDER, 1971 to 1972; 1974 - 1975
Contra Costa County, Martinez, CA
Tried numerous felony cases.

LEGAL ASSISTANT TO CHAIRMAN and LITIGATOR, THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD, Washington D.C. 1966 to 1970
Wrote legal decisions for the Chairman. Began as an intern and was subsequently hired full-time.

DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT. Argued cases in federal courts of appeals including the 2nd, 3rd, 5th, and 9th circuits.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

COUNSELOR, Dispute Resolution Program, Berkeley, CA
1988 to 1989
Introduced to the superintendent of schools, and the principal and faculty of Berkeley High School a unique program to address the violence in the school by training students to become conflict-resolvers.

JUDICIAL EDUCATION ACTIVITY

CHIEF JUDGE, ALRB, Sacramento, CA 1976
Hired approximately 100 lawyers to function as judges; created a training program and developed a curriculum for administrative law judges.

JUDICIAL EDUCATOR, Vietnam 1998
Key participant in teaching a highly successful one-week labor and employment seminar to judges, first in Hanoi and subsequently in Ho Chi Minh City

JUDICIAL EDUCATOR, Cambodia 1995
Key person in creating written materials used in a simultaneously translated ten-day training program for 60 of Cambodia's 100 judges, which elicited an enormously positive response from our judicial audience.

EDUCATION

Continuing Judicial Education, and also served as seminar leader and teacher

DePaul University School of Law, Chicago, IL, 1968
Law Review; graduated third in class
Lawyers Cooperative Awards of Distinction in Labor Law and Equity

B.A. Political Science, minor in Philosophy, University of Illinois, Champaign, IL, 1964