

JOBI HALPER, ESQ.
Mediator • Arbitrator

Professional Biography

Jobi Halper offers an outstanding combination of substantial dispute resolution experience, true talent as a neutral, and an impressive twenty-year practice that established her as a top class action and complex litigation attorney nationwide, during which time she participated in countless mediations and arbitrations. Jobi Halper has been a full time neutral, offering arbitration and mediation services, since 2008. She is known for her problem-solving skills, intelligence, flexibility, tenacity, and ability to relate to and work with every client and attorney who comes before her. Jobi Halper's success rate in resolving cases in mediation is outstanding, and as an arbitrator she is known for her commitment to work diligently in her cases, her ability to quickly understand important issues, and her adeptness at moving cases through discovery and to a hearing and award. One of Ms. Halper's strengths in dispute resolution is her vast experience during her years in legal practice, where she represented plaintiffs and defendants in matters involving class actions, employment cases, contracts, corporate disputes, banking, credit card transactions, fraud, RICO, false advertising, consumer matters, entertainment and more.

Jobi Halper regularly lectures on ADR Issues both publicly and for private firms. She is the American Bar Association's Section on Litigation Alternative Dispute Resolution Editor of the web, a resident expert for the her section on Class Action Dispute Resolution, the author of the Class Action Dispute Resolution chapter in the ABA Section on Litigation's upcoming ADR book, and sits by appointment on the State Bar of California Committee on Mandatory Fee Arbitration. Ms. Halper publishes extensively on dispute resolution matters most relevant to litigators.

Ms. Halper has trained extensively as a Neutral, through the Pepperdine School of Law Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, the American Arbitration Association, the State Bar of California, the National Conflict Resolution Center and other relevant training programs.
