

HON. EDWARD B. HUNTINGTON
Judge, San Diego Superior Court
(Retired)

After serving on the San Diego Superior Court Bench for more than 12 years, Hon. Edward “Ned” Huntington retired and has continued working in private dispute resolution.

Ned was in private law practice starting in 1967, becoming Partner with Huntington & Bryans, and later Huntington & Haviland. In the 1980’s Ned was named as one of The Best Lawyers in America. In 1993, he was selected for Who’s Who in Executives and Professionals. Formerly a Deputy City Attorney, he specialized in tax, family law and estate planning matters, including all phases of litigation. He holds his B.S. in accounting from San Diego State University, his J.D. from the University of California, Hastings College of Law and his L.L.M. in taxation from the University of San Diego’s Graduate Tax Program. He is a Fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and was a Board Certified Specialist in Family Law and also in Taxation.

Ned was appointed to the San Diego Superior Court bench in September 1995 and retired officially on April 4, 2008. Following an assignment to Family Court, he did a two-year tour in Vista doing civil and criminal trials as well as family law. His final assignment was to serve the Independent Family Law Calendar.

Ned was President of the San Diego County Bar Association in 1988 and in 1994. He served as Vice-President of the State Bar of California, Chairperson of the State’s Discipline System, and as a member of the Board of Trustees of the State Bar Foundation. In 1988-1989, he served as a member of the Board of Trustees for the County Law Library. He was a Founding Member as well as a Chairperson of the Certified Family Law Specialists program as well as Family Law Editor of the San Diego Trial Lawyer’s Magazine and Contributing Editor to Matthew Bender’s California Family Law Monthly.

Judge Huntington has served multiple years on the CJER Faculty both for the annual Judicial College and at the Family Law Institute. Ned has given numerous lectures in family law for the State Bar, CEB, Rutter Group, Trial Lawyers, Lawyer’s Club, Barristers, Bridging the Gap and WSU School of Law. In addition, he has done special tutoring for judges new to family law in the application of technology to solving various family issues in the courtroom.

At San Diego State University, he was Men’s Student Body President and in Law school, he was Senior Class President. In 1968, he was named one of San Diego’s Ten Outstanding Young Men. In 1995, he received the County Bar’s annual award for Outstanding Services to the Legal Profession. In December of 2006, Judge Huntington was named Outstanding Jurist by the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. In 2004, he was named Outstanding Alumnus by the Hastings Law School Alumni Association.

Judge Huntington lives in South Mission Beach with his wife Terri. He has two grown children, Jessica (UCLA & USD) and Adam (USC). He continues to be active in Bench-Bar activities as well as boating, golf, surfing, skiing, bicycling, over-the-line and computer technology. His personal website for judges and lawyers education is www.ProfessorNedley.com. His website has been a comprehensive effort and tool to provide assistance over a broad spectrum to lawyers and judges in the family law courtroom.
