

MEDIATION PROVISION

Any party hereto may request mediation of any dispute arising out of any of the terms, provisions, or conditions of this agreement. The mediation shall be non-binding and shall be held in Los Angeles, California, before a mediator selected through ADR Services, Inc. ("ADR Services") at 1900 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 200, Los Angeles, California 90067 or at any of our additional locations.

The mediation shall be commenced by any party making a written demand for mediation to the administrator of ADR Services and serving the demand on the opposing party. Within fifteen (15) days after such demand is made, the parties shall mutually select a mediator through ADR Services. If the parties are unable to agree on a mediator, the administrator of ADR Services shall select an independent mediator.

The parties to the mediation shall equally share the costs of the mediation, however, no party shall be required to pay more than $2,000.00 in connection with any single mediation under this agreement unless such party agrees to do so in writing. Participation in the mediation shall not adversely affect any right or legal remedy the parties hereto may otherwise have. Evidence code § 1119 through §1128 shall apply to the mediation.
